PREFACE.

THE publication in four successive numbers of THE WHITEHALL REVIEW of the names of those Protestants who have become Catholics since the Tractarian movement, led to the almost general suggestion that Rome's Recruits should be permanently embodied in a pamphlet.

This has now been done.

The lists which appeared in THE WHITEHALL REVIEW have been carefully revised, corrected, and considerably augmented; and the result is the compilation of what must be regarded as the first List of Converts to Catholicism of a reliable nature.

While the idea of issuing such a statement of "Perversions" or "Conversions" was received with unanimous favour—for the silly letter addressed to the Morning Post by Sir Edward Sullivan can only be regarded as the wild effusion of an ultra-Protestant gone very wrong—great curiosity has been manifested as to the sources from whence we derived our information. The modus operandi was very simple. Possessed of a considerable nucleus, our hands were strengthened immediately after the appearance of the first list by the co-operation of nearly all the converts themselves, who hastened to beg the addition of their names to the muster-roll.

While the Roman Clergy have materially assisted us in the compilation of the List of Recruits, it is worth noting that we have had no help from the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster, nor from Monsignor Capel. On the other hand, we have received English additions to the List from all parts of the Continent, and even from the United States.

The WHITEHALL List does not, of course, in any way represent the actual numbers of those who have gone over from the Anglican to the Roman Communion. But then it was no part of our scheme to show how many have left us; all we essayed was the publication of the names of the élite; and in this it is almost impossible to say to what extent we have been successful.

THE EDITOR OF "THE WHITEHALL REVIEW."

MR. GLADSTONE ON "ROME'S RECRUITS."

Hawarden, Oct. 11, 1878.

DEAR SIR,

I thank you for sending me THE WHITEHALL REVIEW with the various lists of secessions to the Roman Church. I am glad they have been collected, and I am further glad to hear they are to be published in the form of a pamphlet. For good, according to some, or for evil, according to others, they form as a group an event of much interest and significance.

It would very greatly add to the value of the coming pamphlet if an approximate statement of dates could be made part of it. To give the year in each case would probably be very difficult; but would it be difficult to give decades? Say from 1820 or 1830. Even to divide yet more largely would still be useful; as thus:—

1. Before 1840.
2. 1840—60.
3. Since 1860.

You will, I am sure, excuse this suggestion, and again accept my thanks.

I remain, your very faithful

W. E. GLADSTONE.

It would also be matter of interest to note:—

1. The number of peers.
2. Of members of titled families.
3. Of clergy.
4. Of Oxford men.
5. Of ladies.

But perhaps you will leave all this to readers to extract for themselves.

Now Ready—Price One Shilling,
IN HANDSOME ILLUSTRATED WRAPPER!
